

The background of the entire image is a blurred collage of financial-related elements. On the left, there's a vertical list of stock market data with numbers like 2.930, 2.160, 5.340, 0.450, and 2.500 in green and red. On the right, there are several calculators and a computer keyboard, all in a light blue/white color scheme. The overall color palette is dominated by various shades of blue.
