DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What do you remember or what stands out from the past couple of weeks and this idea of becoming "Outside People"?
2. What is surprising or shocking about this story? Why do you think God chooses to use such a shocking story?
3. What does it make you think to hear that the story of Hosea and Gomer is really a story about God's grace? Is that difficult to believe?
4. How do you think Gomer would have felt to see Hosea prepared to buy her back at the auction? (unworthy? fearful? grateful? overwhelmed? joyful? Do you resonate with any of those feelings when you think about God choosing to redeem you?
5. If God has shown us the same kind of sacrificial, costly love that Hosea showed to Gomer, how would that change us? How might we respond?
6. God saves us as Gomer, but by his spirit empowers us to be like Hosea. What do you think God might want to do in your life that, like with Hosea, may be surprising or challenging?
