1. Right now, what are you waiting for? Has the process of waiting been easy for you, or has it been challenging? Why?
2. James gave us five tools that the disciples used in their waiting. Which of these tools comes most naturally to you, and which one is the hardest for you to use?
3. Obedience is a critical part of the Christian life. In the situation you are currently waiting for, what does obedience to the Lord look like for you?
4. How can you involve other people in your waiting to support you? In what ways can you serve others who are also in a season of waiting?
5. In your waiting, do you see the Word and prayer as tools to bring your waiting before Him? Is this difficult for you to do, and do you find it brings you peace?
6. Waiting can be a season of preparation from the Lord for what you are waiting on. How do you see Him shaping and growing you to fully live in that promise?
