

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

Scripture Reference: Acts 6:1-7

1. Is it difficult for you to think about conflict as a "normal" part of life? Why is that?
2. What tends to be your natural response to conflict?
3. What stands out about the apostle's response to the conflict in this passage?
4. What keeps us from handling conflict in a healthy way?
5. Can you think of a time where you saw conflict handled well and with the grace of the Gospel?
6. How does "looking up" change the way we think about conflict?
7. What would it look like to apply the perspective that the Kingdom of God brings to a situation or challenge you are facing right now?