DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. When you think of "wisdom", what comes to mind for you? Who are some of the people you consider wise?
2. James talked about how theologians define wisdom as "skill in living". How might this be different than your initial definition? How might it improve upon it?
3. Scripture states that wisdom is obtained through the fear of the Lord, which can be seen as reverence and awe of the Lord. What are some instances where you have revered the Lord and been in awe of His work?
4. As we step into this new series which talks about different areas of our life that wisdom can be applied to, what area of life do you want wisdom in this season?
