DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. How would you describe your relationship with money? Is it a crush, dating, on-again/off-again, settled, healthy, or something else?
2. Why would you describe your relationship with money that way?
3. How has your relationship with money changed over the years?
4. What people, experiences, jobs, habits, or other influences have shaped your relationship with money?
5. How have you witnessed or experienced money being used as a tool for power or harm?
6. How have you seen money used as a tool for generosity and good?
7. What do you sense God asking you to do differently in the way you approach your finances?
